

Replying to Discussions

When replying to discussions, you have two options:

- 1 You can click 'REPLY' to the original discussion prompt (just under the title) at the top of the screen and then click 'POST REPLY'.
- 2 You can also reply to the original discussion prompt by clicking on the blank text box that appears at the bottom of the discussion thread, writing your response, and click 'POST REPLY'.

The screenshot displays the 'WeTeachNYC Sample Community' interface. On the left sidebar, there are sections for 'COMMUNITY GOAL', 'NEXT STEPS', 'TAGS', and 'FACILITATOR'. The main content area is titled 'Discussions' and features a 'Sample Discussion Title'. Below the title, there is a post by 'Acacia G.' with the text 'Here is my first prompt' and an attached file 'Session 1 Agenda.pdf'. At the bottom of the discussion thread, there are two text input areas. The first area is located directly under the discussion title and is pointed to by a blue arrow with a circled '1'. The second area is at the bottom of the thread, below the post, and is pointed to by a blue arrow with a circled '2'. Both areas have a 'POST REPLY' button next to them.

To respond to another community member on the thread, click ‘REPLY’ next to the post you want to reply to. This will indent your reply so that other people in the community can clearly see what you’re responding to.
